Dear Barbara,

It was a pleasure meeting you the other day for your comprehensive initial dental examination. Although you originally anticipated the need for porcelain veneers, I feel we may be able to accomplish an excellent esthetic result by other means.

Serena, you exhibit regular dental care and regular recare visits for your mouth. You traumatized your two anterior teeth (#8 and 9) as an eight year old and have had the crowns replaced 2 or 3 times. Presently these two upper front teeth are severely mismatched with the rest of your dentition but you have a minimal number of other teeth with restorations. You do have a moderate to severe Class II bite relationship. This has contributed to the generalized recession of your gums and a slight "buck tooth" appearance when you smile. No worries! I am confident we can achieve an excellent result via orthodontics, whitening, periodontal treatment and some restorative care. The worst case scenario is that you end up with a stable, comfortable bite relationship, healthy gingival tissue and the potential need for veneers. Personally, I am comfortable with the overall proportion and ratio of your smile and do not anticipate the need for veneers.

I have divided your initial treatment plan into phases for easy comprehension.

Barbara, I expect the fee for treatment in my office to be approximately $XX,XXX.XX. This fee includes provisional crowns, permanent crowns, veneers, restorations, whitening and equilibration of your bite. This fee does not include any treatment from specialists. You will need to make financial arrangements with each specialist. My financial coordinator, Carla Mahieu, will gladly assist you in budgeting and financial concerns. My goal is to provide you with the best dental care and quality of service while making treatment affordable.

This fee also includes any related procedures necessary for a period of one year after we complete your treatment. Clinical studies have shown this to be a safe amount of time to identify any latent problems that may exist.

I can assure you that at the end of this scenario, you will have both the comfort and confidence you have sought to restore your smile.

Sincerely,

Brian Gray, DDS
